

TEACH-IN presented by COSW

RUSSELL HOUSE THEATER 9AM-1PM FRIDAY

18
FEB

FREE BREAKFAST
&
FREE LUNCH

Race is a social construct, but it influences our lives and institutions. Racist views and policies have justified the oppression of People of Color and impact the equity and fairness of our systems. What does it mean to be antiracist? Why is this critical for social workers in particular?

Dr. Yarneccia Dyson (UNC-G), an expert on antiracism, will lead this important dialogue with students, faculty, and staff.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

DEI TASKFORCE & ADVISORY TEAM:

Brandi Anderson, Christian Gorchow
and Parthenia Luke

College of Social Work

Sponsored by UofSC Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and in collaboration with the Newman Institute. Questions? coswdiv@mailbox.edu